EXPERIENCE & INTEREST

Please briefly describe why you are interested in serving on the Board:

I am interested in serving on the CCC housing authority because housing is at the center of our community. It impacts the economy, socialization, and environment of our county. In recent years the county has been pressured into developing, against many community members wishes. I have seen how poorly this ~~development~~ development can go and I care deeply about preserving the quality of our community - ensuring safe, affordable, durable development. This will result in a more vibrant community, and avoid long term costs for the county + residents

Another major concern of mine is keeping housing attainable for those who work here, while recognizing the benefits that tourists and second homeowners bring to our economy. Thoughtful housing policy can strike a balance between the two. I would like to explore options with the board that would draw remote workers—who often have disposable income ~~year-round~~ to support our economy year round—without having to develop jobs within the county. I welcome the opportunity to bring practical, well thought out, community focused perspective to the board to guide policies that support residents, workers, and the county.

EXPERIENCE & INTEREST

Please briefly describe why you are interested in serving on the Board:

I have been interested in serving on the Board for several years and have finally decided to make the commitment. I have a background in land use planning, and although I no longer work directly in that field, I remain deeply passionate about these issues. I have lived in Clear Creek County since 2013, first in Georgetown and, three years ago, moving to Silver Plume. I hope to help bring representation for the west side of the County.

The opportunity for homeownership is something I value greatly, as it provides long-term stability for families and strengthens our communities. I hope to contribute practical insights, effective implementation skills, and an overall collaborative approach that can help build consensus among community members and help Clear Creek County make meaningful policy decisions for the future.

List any relevant experience or qualifications:

I've attached my current resume, which is primarily focused on my work in public accounting. I earned my graduate degree in Urban Planning from 2007 to 2010, with a specialization in GIS. After graduating, I worked for approximately a year and a half in Laramie County, Wyoming, before transitioning into public accounting. Despite this career shift, I have maintained a strong interest in land use policy.

Feb. 2011-June 2012 - Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Technician/ Assistant Planner Laramie County Planning Department, Laramie County, WY

Feb. 2010-Feb. 2011 Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Specialist, Geospatial Consulting, Denver, CO

Janine,

Let me please correct my earlier statements, and confirm that the Town of Empire has already adopted a fast track policy which DOLA has already verified as compliant. After reviewing our notes, I can confirm the only two jurisdictions yet to adopt fast track are Georgetown and Silver Plume.

In case this is also helpful for your local discussions:

- Idaho Springs was awarded the $50,000 incentive funds in January.
- Empire and Clear Creek have each qualified for $50,000 incentive funding and simply need to propose how they plan to use these additional funds, then proceed to award/contracting.
- Georgetown and Silver Plume could each qualify for $45,000 of incentive funds if they adopt fast track by June 30, 2026.

See this fact sheet on early adoption of fast track about the incentive funding DOLA is currently offering through June 2026.

Hi Jennifer and Janine,

We recognize that this task falls outside of Kermode's current scope of work and contract with the County. It appears I misunderstood Michael Yerman's role as a subconsultant on this project. Until yesterday, I believed he was subcontracted to provide all partner jurisdictions with fast-track technical assistance and policy drafting. My initial understanding was based on two points:

1. County staff told us on July 23 that "the Kermode consulting team includes a planner. He has already agreed to provide assistance to each of us with respect to the code language changes required for completing the fast-track requirement."
2. A phone call I had with Michael last fall in which he confirmed his availability to support the other CCC municipalities with fast-track efforts.

However, after checking back with Michael yesterday, he clarified that he meant he is "available if the jurisdictions reach out and contract with him separately for that work." It seems I misinterpreted the arrangement, and I apologize for adding confusion.

The fast-track requirement is another item that unfortunately got lost in translation when Amy Saxton left the County. Back in spring/summer 2025, we had considerable discussions with Amy about this during the grant application, award, and agreement drafting processes. Fast-Track adoption by all partner jurisdictions was essentially a condition of the grant award and therefore a key deliverable. Since the primary intent of the LPC grant is to support all jurisdictions remaining eligible for Prop 123, all LPC grant awards include a provision that the funding must support fast-track policy adoption, in addition to any other project objectives.

For Clear Creek County and the other municipalities, Amy envisioned this as a separate task to be completed "in tandem" with the housing authority scope of work, likely by a separate consultant or potentially by one of the current consultants under a separate contract.

Here is a proposed path forward:

- DOLA Support: Technical assistance is available at no cost. This is likely sufficient for Empire and Silver Plume.
- Georgetown: Due to their unique territorial charter, they may require additional technical assistance and/or legal review. Grant funds can be utilized to cover their municipal attorney's time for this and potentially some planning consultant help, if budget allows.

- Budget: The total project budget for the grant is $120,000 ($96k grant + $24k match). While a majority of the remaining funds are intended for independent legal counsel, we hope a small portion of the remaining funds can cover any necessary supplemental consulting for the municipalities.

Let us know if it would be helpful to meet with your team to discuss further.

Subject: Clear Creek quarterly LPC reporting

Hello.

Thanks for submitting Clear Creek County's LPC grant narrative report last week. Looks like lots of great work is underway and we appreciate hearing the latest.

One important clarification about the Fast Track question in that narrative report: we are not asking about the housing authority adopting fast track; we're asking for an update on each of the partner jurisdictions in this grant adopting fast track. As a reminder, adoption of fast track policies is a key deliverable on this grant (for all 5 jurisdictions), even though it is unrelated to standing up the housing authority.

We already know that Idaho Springs and Clear Creek County adopted fast track. But we don't have any information about Empire, Silver Plume and Georgetown so in the quarterly narrative report, we need updates for those communities on estimated dates of adoption. Michael Yerman was hired under this grant project for purposes of helping all jurisdictions with policy adoption. Kazia from Georgetown didn't seem to know this and we encouraged her to reach out to Yerman for help with fast track. We hope Empire and Silver Plume also know that the grant is providing funding to pay Michael Yerman to support them with fast track policy drafting and adoption.

See grant agreement, Exhibit B:

Grant Purpose/Project Description

The Project is a multijurisdictional effort to stand up a new regional housing authority, which will support and expand local capacity to advance affordable housing goals and Proposition 123 requirements, including adoption of expedited development review processes and achieve local government commitments in Clear Creek County, Georgetown, Idaho Springs, Empire and Silver Plume in Colorado.

2.2.Work Description. Clear Creek County (Grantee) acting as lead fiscal agent, will hire qualified consultants and contract legal counsel to facilitate the launch of the Clear Creek Regional Housing Authority (CCRHA). Work includes creating all foundational documents for CCRHA, preparing a strategic plan for prioritized implementation, creating policies and programs, identifying revenue streams to sustain CCRHA into the future, facilitating collaboration between all partner jurisdictions, and providing general support to all jurisdictions to achieve Proposition 123 requirements including adoption of expedited development review and reporting on unit counts.

4. DELIVERABLES

4.1. Outcome. The final outcome of this Grant is documentation that the Clear Creek Regional Housing Authority has been established as a functioning, multi-jurisdictional housing authority supported by a strategic plan and vision, submission of any related reports or work product funded by this Grant, documentation from stakeholder engagement outcomes, and adoption of expedited review processes for affordable housing projects and/or achieve Proposition 123 requirements in Clear Creek County, Georgetown, Idaho Springs, Empire and Silver Plume in Colorado.
